In 2015, the Ministry of Health allocates XOF 200 million (USD 193,000) at community level in all 34 health districts by end of 2019.

In 2018, the Ministry of Health adopts a national action plan for introducing injectables—including DMPA-subcutaneous (SC)—at community health agents to incorporate DMPA-SC at community level into their curriculum, beginning September 2018.

In 2015, the Ministry of Health allocates XOF 200 million (USD 193,000) for contraceptives in the budget, quadrupling its 2014 allocation.

The government’s new three-year family planning costed implementation plan (2017-2020) increases activities dedicated to adolescents and youth, covering 30 percent of all outlined activities—compared to the 14 percent of activities in the previous plan.

The rural communities of Gorgadji and Seytenga allocate XOF 2.2 million (USD 3,722) for family planning activities in their 2017 annual investment plans.

In December 2017, the Ministry of Health approves costed action plan allowing community health workers to provide injectable contraception.

In May 2014, the government allocates MRU 15 million (USD 50,000) for reproductive health supplies, including contraceptives. The budget line is increased annually between 2015-2017 and is spent each year.

In October 2017, the government allocates ZMW 11.4 million (USD 1.2 million) in its 2018 budget for reproductive health supplies.

In January 2018, Pallisa district establishes a family planning technical working group and approves the family planning costed implementation plan in March 2018.

In September 2018, Bungoma county develops and approves family planning costed implementation plan and incorporates family planning into its four-year County Integrated Development Plan.

In May 2015, Homa Bay county approves five-year family planning strategic plan of KES 18 billion (USD 20 million).

In February 2018, Busia county approves three-year KES 2.3 billion (USD 24 million) family planning and reproductive health strategy in April 2015.

In October 2017, the government allocates USD 1.1 million for supplies logistics, covering Eastern and Southern provinces.

In August 2018, government allocates ZMW 575,600 (USD 56,600) for the training of community health workers in three districts—Chipata, Katete and Luapula in its 2018 budget.

In October 2017, the government allocates ZMW 11.4 million (USD 1.2 million) in its 2018 budget for reproductive health supplies.